To the Clerk of the Above Named Court:

The Plaintiff, Kevin P. Loughman, in the above action, HEREBY Motions that the order for CLOSURE previously filed with the Court by Opposing Counselors Jean Musiker and Shireen Argani and ALLOWED, by Young, C. J. on 12/22/04 should be lifted or removed, effective January 7, 2005.

As reason wherefore, the Plaintiff, Pro-Se avers to the Court that he has survived Open Heart Surgery for the replacement of his Aortic Valve and one of his Coronary Arteries. This surgery was accomplished at the Heart Hospital in London, U.K. on December 10th and December 16th, 2004. Repatriation back to the United States and short-term recovery and convalescence are now nearing completion.

The Plaintiff's primary care physician has cleared the Plaintiff to return to work, commencing on January 17, 2005.

Having recovered from this surgery, and his post-operative condition now having become stabilized, the Plaintiff, Pro-Se, is now anxious to move ahead to conclusion of this lawsuit, currently filed with the United States District Court for Eastern Massachusetts.

Respectfully submitted to this Honorable Court,
Signed under the Pains and Penalties of Perjury.
